

Kevin L. McBee has been a judging pageants for the past 35 years on the local, state, and national level. He has also coached candidates to go on to receive titles on all three levels.

Kevin has been on the Mountain State Apple Harvest Festival Board of Directors for 25 years. He has been the Director in charge of the Grand Feature Parade for the past 23 years. Kevin has judged the Apple Blossom Grand Feature Parade and Firemen's Parade in the past. He has judged pageants and parades at Sun-Fun Festival, Myrtle Beach, SC, World Youth Festival, Atlantic City, NJ, and A.Y.O.P. National Competition, Notre Dame University, S. Bend Indiana.

Kevin is a retired principal and worked for Berkeley County Schools, WV for 38 years. Kevin and his family reside in Hedgesville, WV. Kevin is married to his wife, Ursula, who is a retired teacher. They have a daughter, Abigail. Abigail is a senior at the University of Alabama and currently holds the title of National United States Role Model 2023.