

Tina Hammel

Tina resides in Inwood, WV with her husband. She is a graduate of James Wood High School. Tina also attended Lord Fairfax Community College and Blue Ridge Community College. She is a 2015 graduate of Leadership Berkeley.

Tina is a Medical Assistant and a Controlled Substance Inspector at the Veterans Hospital in Martinsburg, WV. She is the Administrator of the Pink Sister breast cancer support page. Tina has held several hometown titles.

Tina's platform is Breast Cancer early detection, as she is a 8 year survivor. She is also involved with Operation We Care, which is sending packages to the military troops

Tina enjoys baton twirling, camping, kayaking and karaoke.

Good Luck to all the contestants tonight!